1	9/30/2019	PSEG	Legal	High				You have informed us that the O&M Agreement is not intended to be FEMA complaint. As a consequence, the labor costs of the operating company were they to perform work on a FEMA project would not be reimbursable by FEMA. For such work to be FEMA reimbursable, it would be necessary to engage third party contractors pursuant to FEMA compliant contracts. Do the current CBAs or other related work rules permit the use of non-union labor for the FEMA work?
